

LIANA SAMVEL OHANYAN

Editor of Armenian segment

L. Ohanyan was born in Syunik region, Sisian town, on September 19, 1983.

In 1990-1998 she attended Secondary School N 3 of Sisian.

From 1998 to 2000 L. Ohanyan studied in Sisian college.

In 1991-1998 she attended Sisian Musical School.

In 2000-2005 L. Ohanyan studied at the Faculty of Armenian Language and Literature of the State Pedagogical University after Khachatur Abovyan.

L. Ohanyan was the secretary of the Faculty's Scientific Council.

For academic excellence she was rewarded with "Grigor Narekatsi" scholarship.

From 2005 to 2009 she was a postgraduate student at the Chair of Armenian Literature and its Teaching Methods of the ASPU after Kh. Abovyan.

Her dissertation thesis is dedicated to the modern Armenian women prose writers.

In 2006 L. Ohanyan worked at the Armenian National Gallery as an executive assistant.

Since February 2017 up present L. Ohanyan has been working at the editorial of the "Historical-Philological Journal".

L. Ohanyan is an author of the monograph entitled "Karine Khodikyan's Creative World" and 6 scientific articles.

She is married, has two sons.